2014 SEC Tournament Champions

Entering its 25th seasons of existence, the Georgia softball program has made noise across the collegiate softball landscape. From four Women's College World Series appearances to three Southeastern Conference titles, Georgia has established itself a winning tradition.

Since the 1997 inaugural season, the Bulldogs have accumulated 1,017 wins, including 344 in SEC action. A majority of those wins have come under the helm of Lu Harris-Champer, who has collected 902 in her 19 years in the Classic City. Georgia have had 40-win seasons in 17 of the 19 years under Harris-Champer, including seven of those with 50 or more victories.

The winning doesn't stop when the regular season ends but carries on into postseason action. Hot bats and clutch pitching propelled Georgia to a second-place finish in the SEC and trips to the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010. In 2014, the Bulldogs brought home the SEC Tournament crown after defeating Kentucky in the Championship Game. The team chemistry of the 2016 squad carried the Bulldogs to Oklahoma City. For the second time in three seasons, Georgia appeared in OKC in 2018, sweeping its way through the Athens Regional and Super Regional in 2018.

The past 18 years have seen Georgia in an NCAA Regional while appearing in 10 Super Regionals, with 69 wins in the program's NCAA Championship history.

With the 2021 season here, there may be a new squad in Athens, but the goals remain the same, and Georgia won't be quieting down any time soon.

POSTSEASON STAPLE

Georgia's winning tradition doesn't just stem from the Bulldogs' accomplishments in regular-season games, but from what it has achieved when those are over.

The Bulldogs' have made themselves a mainstay in NCAA Championship action, making it to an NCAA Regional in each of the past 18 seasons. Its stellar track record in the postseason puts Georgia as one of 14 teams in the nation to appear in a Regional for 18 or more straight years. Within that realm, Georgia is one of three Southeastern Conference teams to produce such success.

Georgia isn't just a staple in Regional fields, but also into the next round, appearing in 10 Super Regionals since 2005.

The pinnacle of college softball is in Oklahoma City, and Georgia made back-to-back showings at the Women's College World Series in 2009 and 2010, finishing as one of the last four teams standing in both. The Bulldogs returned in 2016 after knocking off back-to-back National Champion Florida in dramatic walk-off fashion in the Super Regional. After sweeping the NCAA Regional and Super Regional in Athens, the Bulldogs punched their ticket to OKC in 2018 for the fourth program appearance at the WCWS.

The consistency that the Bulldogs have shown reaching postseason play has planted the program as one of the top teams in NCAA softball.

BULLDOGS IN THE PROS

Former Bulldogs have made their presence known in the professional world, helping to grow the game across the nation. Overall, 18 Bulldogs have gone on to play ball after their collegiate careers. Since 2007, 14 Georgia players have been selected in the National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) Draft.

With the 2020 NPF season put on hold, the advent of Athletes Unlimited brought a new perspective to the game of softball. With opportunities to score individual points on every play, along with points for team wins and MVP honors, every moment counts in an AU game. Former Bulldog great Megan Wiggins concluded the season 27th out of 57 players in 2020 with 1,090 total points.

In the 2019 season, Georgia had three past athletes represented on an NPF roster. Kristyn Sandberg along with Alyssa DiCarlo teamed up with Georgia assistant coach Rachele Fico on the Chicago Bandits, who finished runners-up in the Championship Series. At the end of the season, Fico concluded her outstanding career, retiring from the NPF to focus on her coaching career.

All-NPF outfielder Megan Wiggins' ninth season in the league was spent with the USSSA Pride. Wiggins helped guide the Pride to a Cowles Cup Championship over the Bandits for the second season in a row. Following the 2018 season, Wiggins was invited to the USA Softball Women's National Team Trials in early January.

Infielder Alyssa DiCarlo became the latest ProDawg after being drafted by the Bandits as the fourth-overall pick in the 2019 NPF Draft. DiCarlo appeared in 32 games, hitting .274 with a .479 slugging percentage as a rookie. She knocked three home runs with six doubles in 2019.

After two years in the NPF, infielder Alex Hugo guided the USA Baseball Women's National Team to a gold medal at the COPABE Women's Pan-American Championships in 2019. Hugo was named the MVP and later USA Baseball Sportswoman of the Year after leading Team USA in six offensive categories en route to the gold medal.

JACK TURNER STADIUM

JACK TURNER STADIUM

The Georgia softball team plays in a multi-million dollar softball stadium. The main grandstand holds approximately 1,400 fans while additional outfield seating was added in 2015. Jack Turner Stadium, named for the late Jack Turner, thanks in part to gifts from himself and his son Jimmy Turner, has been chosen to host 10 NCAA Regionals and five NCAA Super Regionals since the format began in 2006.

Both the Georgia and visiting team dugouts are connected via tunnel from the locker rooms. The Bulldogs' locker room area has all facilities located in it, including an athletic training room, players' lounge, game room, locker room, showers, as well as the coaches' offices and locker room. On the first base side, the visiting team has its locker room and showers along with the umpires' locker room. A state-of-the-art press box was built featuring suites for radio, television, media, and athletic administration. Georgia's stadium ranks among the nation's best and will continue to be an attractive site for NCAA postseason play for years to come.

JACK TURNER

Jack Turner was named to the University of Georgia Foundation Board of Trustees in 1999 where he served as a member of the Investment Committee. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1953 with a Bachelor's of Business Administration in Finance and was a member of Chi Psi fraternity, the Air Force ROTC, and Gridiron. As an athlete, he was a letterman in both baseball and basketball.

Following graduation, he served as a pilot in the U.S. Air Force, and after serving his country, embarked on a professional career in the financial services industry. Jack was president and retired as chairman of the board of American Funds Distributors, a subsidiary of the American Funds Group, based in Los Angeles in 1995.

What followed could not be characterized as a "quiet retirement." Jack dedicated much of his retirement years to the University of Georgia. His service included: Director of the Georgia Student Educational Fund (the forerunner to today's William C. Hartman Fund); Executive Committee member and director of the National Alumni Association; Member on the board of the UGA Athletic Association; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Finance Committee; Chairman of the UGA Athletic Association Facilities Committee; Chairman of the Georgia Athletic Association Student Athletic Scholarship Endowment Fund (through which Jack has endowed several scholarships); Founding member and partner in the President's Club; Member of the Heritage Society.

In addition, Jack founded the Turner Family Foundation, a private organization that supports local charities. In 1999, he was honored by the National Football Hall of Fame for his outstanding support of amateur football, and in 2002 was part of the inaugural class of inductees to the UGA Athletic Association's "Circle of Honor," honoring his service to the organization. The Terry College of Business honored him in 2002 as a "Distinguished Alumni" for his longtime service to the school.

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic, and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education.

The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785—just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President—the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

THE CITY OF ATHENS

Universally known as one of the nation's premier college towns, Athens is the perfect marriage of campus and community. Broad Street is all that separates the University of Georgia's historic North Campus and a vibrant downtown community filled with restaurants and shopping. Athens has carved its own identity with the individualistic pursuits of a music scene that has turned local artists into worldwide superstars.

Athens' ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide megabands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars from Taylor Swift to Snoop Dogg.

2021 SEASON OUTLOOK

The 2021 season will be the 25th of Georgia softball in Athens and the 21st under the direction of head coach Lu Harris-Champer.

After the 2020 campaign was cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic, a sense of unfinished business was felt among the Bulldogs. Georgia played 28 total games last season but only one Southeastern Conference series.

Heading into 2021, the roster carries 27 student-athletes including 12 upperclassmen. Graduates Mary Wilson Avant and Alley Cutting returned for their final season after being granted another year of eligibility. The rest of the upperclassmen feature seven seniors and a trio of juniors. The roster offers a good mix of experience and youth with five sophomores and a 10-member freshmen class. The signing class of the 10 freshmen was ranked by Extra Innings Softball as the fourth-best signing class in the nation last year as the class featured five of its Elite 100 players and eight on its list of top 200.

In the circle, the pitching staff will be bolstered by the return of veterans Avant and Cutting along with senior Lauren Mathis. The three made up over 90 percent of the Bulldogs' innings in 2020 on a staff that recorded a 1.92 ERA through 28 games and fanned 252 hitters. Both Mathis and Avant ranked in the top 10 in strikeouts per seven innings. Georgia's ERA in the shortened 2020 season ranked fourth in the SEC and 24th nationally. Freshmen Britton Rogers, who was ranked No. 11 on Extra Innings' pitchers list last season, and Madison Kerpics will be competing for important innings in the circle this spring after strong fall and preseason efforts.

Completing the battery, senior Jessica Morgan will carry most of the load behind the plate. Morgan missed the majority of 2020 due to an injury, but her experience will be heavily relied upon this season. In her career, Morgan has played 80 games, most behind the plate. Joining her will be rookie Payden Bordeau who was ranked No. 11 on Extra Innings' catchers list.

Georgia returns a significant amount of experience on the infield this season with juniors Lacey Fincher and Savana Sikes starting most games on the right side last season and sophomores Sydney Kuma and Sara Mosley being mainstays on the left side in their rookie campaigns. The trio of Fincher, Kuma, and Mosley were responsible for much of Georgia's offense last season as they were the Bulldogs' top three hitters and accounted for nearly 40 percent of Georgia's total hits and 40 percent of its extra-base hits. After a strong showing in the fall and preseason, freshman Ellie Armistead has proven to be a valuable asset on the infield and will get significant playing time this season. Freshmen Aniyah Black and Cayla Bishop will provide depth but have dealt with injuries during the preseason.

While junior CJ Landrum is the lone retuning starter in the outfield from last season, senior Tyler Armistead brings starting experience from the season before and has had a strong preseason. Georgia will have a significant amount of depth and competition in the outfield in 2021. The Bulldogs' depth will be in senior Jacqui Switzer, sophomore Jaiden Fields, and a trio of freshmen in Jayda Kearney, Hayley Eaton, and Sydney Chambley. Kearney came to Georgia as Extra Innings' number two outfield recruit in the country out of high school.

Last season, Georgia used six different designated players. Senior Mackenzie Puckett started 12 games as the DP while Switzer started four. Fields will also be in the mix as the Bulldogs' DP this season. In 17 at bats last season Fields drove in seven runs in clutch performances.

2021 SCHEDULE

The 2021 season kicks off in Athens when the Bulldogs welcome South Alabama and Virginia as part of the 14th Annual Red & Black Showcase the weekend of Feb. 12-14. The next weekend, Feb. 19-21, Georgia hosts Kent State, Longwood, and Florida A&M in the 18th Annual Georgia Classic.

Kennesaw State comes to Athens Friday, Feb. 26 for one game before Georgia travels down the road for three games in Atlanta. That Saturday, Georgia will play Georgia State and Miami (Ohio) at Georgia State. On Sunday, Georgia will tussle with Georgia Tech in the annual showdown between the Bulldogs and Yellow Jackets.

Tournament play will rev back up in Athens the weekend of March 5-6 when Charleston Southern, UAB, and Mercer come to town for the 12th Annual Bulldog Classic. The final tournament of the season will be the UGA Classic March 12-14 when East Carolina and North Dakota come to Jack Turner Stadium.

For the first time in program history, the University of Oklahoma will come to Athens for a midweek doubleheader on April 20. The Bulldogs and Sooners have met five times since 2008 (most recently 2015), all in Cathedral City, California as part of what is now the Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic.

Other non-conference midweek games feature Alabama State (doubleheader, March 3), Georgia State (March 10), at Kennesaw State (March 17), Georgia Southern (March 24), Furman (March 31), and USC Upstate (April 14).

Road SEC series include trips to Ole Miss (March 26-28), Kentucky (April 10-12), Tennessee (Aprils 23-25), and Mississippi State (May 7-9).

The University of Alabama is set to host the 2021 SEC Softball Tournament at Rhoads Stadium in Tuscaloosa May 12-15.

LU HARRIS-CHAMPER

YEAR AT UGA 21st
RECORD AT UGA 952-345
YEAR OVERALL 25th
RECORD OVERALL 1,134-409-1

Lu Harris-Champer has become the architect of Georgia softball, building the Bulldogs into a nationally-recognized, championship-caliber program. Entering her 21st year at the helm in the 2021 season, Harris-Champer has guided Georgia to 18-straight NCAA Tournament appearances, two Southeastern Conference Championships, one SEC Tournament Championship, 10 NCAA Super Regional showings, and four trips to the Women's College World Series, including two trips in the last four seasons.

Harris-Champer is 925-345 in her time with the Bulldogs which includes a 308-198 record in the SEC. She has also established Georgia as one of the elite programs in the nation. Under her guidance, Georgia has had 30 NFCA All-Americans, 13 Easton All-Americans, 74 All-SEC recognitions, 72 NFCA All-Region selections, 21 SEC All-Tournament honorees, 29 SEC Players of the Week, 26 SEC Pitchers of the Week, 21 SEC Freshmen of the Week, one SEC Player of the Year, two SEC Pitchers of the Year, one SEC Freshman of the Year, and has been named the SEC Coach of the Year three times, most recently in 2018.

Under her leadership, Georgia has been equally impressive off of the field. In her 20 seasons at the helm, Georgia has had three CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, 12 CoSIDA Academic All-District selection, 153 members of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, 39 members of the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll, 17 players named to the SEC Community Service Team and 13 student-athletes inducted into the UGA Student-Athlete Leadership Academy.

The abbreviated 2020 season saw the Bulldogs finish the season 23-5 with a series win in the lone SEC series. The Bulldogs ranked nationally and in the SEC in numerous offensive and pitching statistical categories. Georgia began the season winning seven-straight run-rule victories, allowing just five runs in that span. The 2020 season featured breakout rookie campaigns for infielders Sydney Kuma and Sara Mosley. The duo made up two of Georgia's top three hitters including Kuma recording a .438 hitting clip. In the circle, Mary Wilson Avant fanned a league-best 120 hitters and picked up 11 victories. Georgia's shortened-season ERA came in sub-2.00 at 1.92 through 28 games. The Bulldogs concluded the season ranked No. 14 in both major polls.

Georgia notched its 18th-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance in 2019 and finished the season 42-19 overall, the 17th 40-win season by the Bulldogs. 2019 was the final season for slugger Alyssa DiCarlo, who earned All-America status for the second-straight season. DiCarlo was drafted by the Chicago Bandits as the fourth-overall pick of the NPF Draft, becoming the second-highest pick for a Bulldog since Taylor Schlopy (second overall) in 2011. DiCarlo also shattered Georgia's career records for home runs, RBI, extra-base hits, and total bases. Along with DiCarlo, Ciara Bryan and Lacey Fincher earned All-SEC honors in 2019. The 2019 campaign also saw Georgia record the 1,000th victory in the program history, over 900 of which belong to Harris-Champer.

The 2018 season saw Georgia finish with 48 wins and culminated with the Bulldogs' fourth trip to the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City. The NCAA Tournament was Georgia's 17th-consecutive appearance under Harris-Champer. The roster featured NFCA All-Americans in outfielder Cortni Emanuel, shortstop Alysa DiCarlo, and pitcher Brittany Gray. Georgia claimed four All-SEC Team spots and posted seven to the NFCA All-Southeast Region Team. Emanuel and DiCarlo were each named Top 25 finalists for the USA Softball National Player of the Year award. At the end of the season, Emanuel was named the recipient of the New Balance Golden Shoe award, given to the top base stealer in the country.

The regular season saw Georgia open the season 26-1 including a 25-game winning streak, tying a program record. In conference play, Georgia won nine series including series against No. 2 Florida, No. 7 Tennessee, and No. 17 Alabama. The Bulldogs, the No. 7 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, swept their way to a trip to OKC with wins over Harvard and Northwestern in the Athens Regional and a sweep of Tennessee in the Athens Super Regional.

Statistically in 2018, Georgia finished third in the country with a .333 team batting average, fourth with a .526 slugging percentage, 10th with a .404 on base clip, and 14th in scoring (5.97 runs/game). In the circle, the Bulldogs pitching staff finished 13th nationally with a 1.86 team ERA. Individually, Brittany Gray led the nation with a 0.48 ERA in her senior campaign.

Harris-Champer became a member of an elite group of collegiate head softball coaches on Feb. 25, 2017 when she recorded her 1,000th-career victory with a

In 2017, the Bulldogs punched their ticket to Georgia's 16th-consecutive NCAA Tournament, earning a trip to the Regional final against host Florida State. The 2017 season saw the Bulldogs win the team batting title in the SEC with a .338 average and finishing with the fifth-best clip in the country. Three Bulldogs were honored as All-SEC including All-American outfielder Cortni Emanuel.

Outfielder Sydni Emanuel became the latest ProDawg when she was drafted by the Akron Racers as a the 16th overall pick of the 2017 National Pro Fastpitch Draft.

The 2016 season was a magical one for Georgia softball and Harris-Champer, as the season ended within the program's third appearance at the Women's College World Series. After an early exit in the SEC Tournament, the Bulldogs entered postseason with a vengeance, taking the crown at the Athens Regional before bouncing back-to-back national champion Florida with a shutout win in game one and a Kaylee Puailoa walk-off home run in game two to secure their spot in Oklahoma City.

At season's end, Georgia had a 46-20 record, including 12-12 in SEC play. Eight Bulldogs hit over .300 for the year, guiding the team to a program-best .342 batting average. Tina Iosefa set an SEC and school record for most RBI in a season with 87 on her way to earning NFCA All-America honors. Four student-athletes garnered NFCA All-Region awards while seven made it to an All-SEC Team, including freshman Alyssa DiCarlo to the first team as she posted 63 RBI for the year, the most of any freshman in the NCAA.

Harris-Champer and Georgia finished the 2015 season with an overall record of 44-17 that included a 14-9 mark in the SEC. Following the regular season, the Bulldogs earned the No. 14 seed in the NCAA Tournament where the team fought its way back from a 14-inning loss to WKU to win the next three games, outscoring its opponents 35-8. As a team offensively, Georgia set several program records. The 2015 hitters posted program-best marks in batting average (.343), runs scored (440) and on-base percentage (.420). The 554 hits were the fourth most in program-history and the most since 2006, while the 380 RBI was the second-highest mark in school history and the best since 2011. The pitching staff finished with its lowest ERA since 2012.

In addition to the team accomplishments, the Bulldogs had several players earn individual awards. Alex Hugo and Cortni Emanuel highlighted the award season, as each earned NFCA All-America honors. Emanuel was also a top-10 finalist for the USA Softball Freshman of the Year. Georgia put seven players on the NFCA All-Region team and had five All-SEC selections.

In her 14th season with the Bulldogs, Harris-Champer led the team to unprecedented heights when the team won the 2014 SEC Tournament. The Bulldogs beat eventual national champion Florida and national runner-up Alabama in the tournament before handing Kentucky a 5-2 loss to claim the title. It was the first-ever tournament title for the Bulldogs. With the win, Georgia earned a berth to the NCAA Tournament for the 13th time. The SEC Tournament title propelled the team to a No. 4 national seed, allowing it to host both the Regional and Super Regional. Georgia finished the year with a 49-15 record that included a 15-9 mark in SEC play. In addition to the team successes, Harris-Champer coached several players to individual honors. Hugo, the 2014 NCAA Home Run Champion, was named a First Team NFCA All-American, to the All-SEC First Team, the All-SEC Tournament Team and the All-Southeast Region team. Chelsea Wilkinson was recognized as a Second Team All-American, the SEC Tournament MVP, a member of the All-Southeast Region Team, the All-SEC team and was named the SEC Pitcher of the Week twice. Additionally, Paige Wilson was an All-Southeast Region selection and named to the All-SEC and SEC All-Tournament team. In all, the Bulldogs had seven members named to the All-Southeast Region team, as Tina Iosefa, Geri Ann Glasco, Samantha LaZear and Anna Swafford each earned the honor.

In 2013, Harris-Champer led Georgia to its 12th NCAA Tournament. The 2013 Bulldogs finished the season with a 40-21 record that included a 14-9 mark in the SEC, seven wins over teams ranked in the top-25, sweeps of four SEC series and a two-game sweep of Georgia Tech. Harris-Champer coached four players to All-SEC honors, as Wilson and Kaylee Puailoa were each named First Team All-SEC and Glasco, Puailoa, and Wilkinson earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team. Glasco was named the SEC Co-Freshman of the Year, marking the first time in program history that a Georgia player received Freshman of the Year honors.

Wilson and Wilkinson were also named to the SEC All-Tournament team. In addition to All-SEC honors, Puailoa, Glasco, and Wilson were also named the NFCA All-Region Teams, with Glasco going on to earn Third Team NFCA All-America honors.

The 2012 season marked the 11th time that Harris-Champer has led a Bulldog softball squad to the NCAA postseason and the sixth time that Georgia advanced to a NCAA Super Regional. With a record of 45-17 that included a 17-11 mark in the SEC, the 2012 squad spent the majority of the season ranked among the top-15 teams in the nation and earned 13 wins over team ranked in the top-25. In the NCAA Tournament, Georgia was awarded the 10th overall national seed. The Bulldogs swept the NCAA Athens Regional field, marking the sixth time that the team has claimed a regional title and advanced to the Knoxville Super Regional. Harris-Champer coached Kristyn Sandberg to First Team All-SEC honors, while Erin Arevalo was named to the All-SEC second team and Paige Wilson earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman team. In addition to conference honors, Sandberg and Arevalo earned All-American status, with Sandberg appearing on the second team and Arevalo earning a spot on the third team.

Harris-Champer's 2011 team posted a 51-14 overall record and advancing to the NCAA Super Regional round of play. In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 17-9 and finished third in the Eastern Division and also made a run to the championship game in the SEC Tournament. Georgia spent four weeks during the 2011 season ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/National Fastpitch Coaches Association poll and one week atop the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll, which marked the first No. 1 rankings in school history. Harris-Champer led three Bulldogs to All-American honors, as Alisa Goler and Megan Wiggins were selected to the Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America Second Team. Goler and Taylor Schlopy were named Lowe's Senior CLASS All-Americans, while Goler was a Top 25 Finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

In 2010, Harris-Champer's Georgia squad posted a 50-13 overall record, advancing to the WCWS where it went 2-2 and reached the final four. In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-8 and finished second in the Eastern Division. In the final rankings of the 2010 season, the Bulldogs were ranked No. 3 in the USA Today/NFCA poll and No. 4 in the ESPN.com/USA Softball poll. Under Harris-Champer's guidance, Goler and Schlopy earned second-team Louisville Slugger/NFCA All-America honors, while Schlopy also garnered ESPN.com All-America recognition and was named a top-25 finalist for the 2010 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award.

In 2009, Harris-Champer's Bulldogs were tabbed the Easton Sports, Inc., Team of the Year after going 47-12 and advancing to their first-ever Women's College World Series appearance, where they went 3-2 and were one of the final four teams standing. The Bulldogs finished the year with NCAA statistics rankings of first in fielding percentage (.981), second in slugging percentage (.574), fourth in home runs per game (1.44), sixth in scoring (6.32 runs per game), and 10th in batting average (.319). In SEC play, the Bulldogs went 18-7 to finish second in the Eastern Division and third overall. Georgia tied for the league lead in triples with 17 and its national-leading fielding percentage was the third-best in SEC history. Georgia finished the season ranked fourth in both the USA Today/NFCA and ESPN.com/USA Softball final polls.

Goler and Schlopy were named First Team All-Americans. Goler was also a USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year top 10 finalist, and Schlopy was chosen to the USA Softball Japan Cup Team and helped the Americans win Gold.

In 2008, the Georgia softball program finished with an overall record of 46-24, an SEC mark of 14-14 (3rd Eastern Division) and advanced to the Super Regional round of the NCAA Softball Championship. With an 18-player roster consisting of fifty percent freshmen and 12 underclassmen, the prospect of what to expect from the onset of the season was uncertain. The Bulldogs finished the season ranked No. 17 by USA Today/NFCA and No. 18 by ESPN.com/USA Softball. Harris-Champer recorded and surpassed 600 collegiate career coaching victories in 2008 as well as achieving and surpassing 400 wins at Georgia in her eight seasons with the team.

The Bulldogs concluded their 2007 campaign with an appearance in the championship game of the NCAA Lincoln Regional. The Bulldogs posted a 46-28 overall record and a 13-15 mark in conference action. Kellie Middleton became a two-time All-American after earning Second Team honors from Easton, which marked the sixth-consecutive year in which a Bulldog earned All-America honors.

Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs captured their third SEC Eastern Division title en route to posting its fifth-consecutive season of 54 or more wins in 2006. Overall, UGA tallied a 54-15 record and earned a berth in the NCAA Regionals. Harris-Champer secured her 500th career win on April 2, with a victory over Ole Miss. At the conclusion of the season, Georgia also set a school record after three student-athletes (Kellie Middleton, Jessica Doucette and Megan McAllister) earned All-America distinctions in 2006.

The 2005 season proved to be a record-setting campaign for the Bulldogs as they earned their second conference championship in three years while appearing in the championship game of an NCAA Super Regional. Under the direction of Harris-Champer, Georgia posted a 26-4 record in SEC play, tying the second-best mark in conference history. Michelle Green and Kim Wendland were named Louisville Slugger/NFCA and Easton All-Americans at the conclusion of the 2005 season. Harris-Champer tallied her second SEC Coach of the Year honor, as well.

The Bulldogs concluded the 2004 season with an appearance in the championship game of a NCAA Regional. The Bulldogs finished the season in the top-20 in several national statistics, including a third-place finish in team batting average (.329), sixth-place ranking in fielding percentage (.974), and a seventh-place finish in runs per game (5.72).

In 2003, the Bulldogs clinched the program's first SEC crown and earned their second-consecutive appearance in the NCAA Regionals, capturing two wins in the tournament. At the conclusion of the 2003 season, the Bulldogs led the SEC in 18 categories and were second in five more. Georgia tied two NCAA records, four SEC records, and established 35 new Georgia records.

Harris-Champer took Georgia to its first-ever NCAA Softball Tournament in 2002, compiling a 59-17 record. The 59 wins ranked as the second-best in the nation in 2002. That year, Harris-Champer and the Bulldogs started their season with a 24-game winning streak. By the end of the regular season, Georgia had finished second in both the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division and the Conference Tournament. Nicole Barber and Kim Wendland became Georgia's first two All-Americans in softball and were also named First Team All-SEC. Barber became the NCAA record holder for consecutive steals with 73.

In 2001, Harris-Champer helped Georgia to a 33-win season while setting several team records along the way. She also picked up sweeps against Georgia Tech and Florida, and taking two of three from Tennessee.

Prior to her time at Georgia, Harris-Champer spent three seasons as the head coach at Southern Miss where she led the Lady Eagles to two Women's College World Series appearances. For her efforts in the 1999 season, Harris-Champer was named the 1999 South Region Coach of the Year. In addition to her honors, Southern Miss pitcher Courtney Blades won the 2000 Honda Broderick Award as the nation's top player.

In 1997, Harris-Champer served as head coach of the Orlando Wahoos of the Women's Pro Fastpitch League. She led Orlando to a 60-13 record and earned Coach of the Year honors after guiding her team to regular-season and tournament titles.

Harris-Champer was head coach at Nicholls State in 1996 and 1997, leading the school to impressive records of 46-19-1 and 48-23, respectively. She also helped the team to a pair of NCAA Regional berths, a Southland Conference regular-season and tournament championship, as well as the finals of the NCAA Regional. Harris-Champer was tabbed 1996 Southland Conference and South Region Coach of the Year and finished third in National Coach of the Year balloting.

Prior to her stint at Nicholls, Harris-Champer spent five years as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Western Illinois. During that span, the Westerwinds were 156-98, won the 1992 Gateway Conference tournament, the 1993 Mid-Continent Conference regular-season and tournament crowns and the 1996 Mid-Continent Conference West Division title.

A native of San Diego, California, Harris-Champer played three seasons at Western Illinois after transferring from Mesa (Calif.) Community College. She is married to Jerry Champer, the Associate Head Coach for the seven-time national champion Georgia swimming and diving team.

Lu and Jerry have three children: Twins Jenna & Emma, born Aug. 2, 2004, and Mya, born May 23, 2006.

TONY BALDWIN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

YEAR AT UGA Seventh

ALMA MATER Butler, 1995

DUTIES Offense

Recruiting Coordinator

After serving as a Georgia volunteer assistant from 2011-12, Tony Baldwin rejoined the Bulldog coaching staff as an assistant coach in June 2014 before being promoted to associate head coach shortly after the 2016 season. Baldwin will be in his seventh season in Athens entering the 2021 campaign.

Georgia's offense has found successful production since Baldwin's arrival. In the abbreviated 2020 season, the Bulldogs hit .335, the third-best in the SEC, through 28 games. Freshman infielder Sydney Kuma hit .438 on the season, one of the best in the league. Fellow rookie Sara Mosley knocked in 31 runs with nine doubles in 2020. Despite the shortened season, Georgia was top-three in the SEC in multiple team categories including slugging and on-base percentages, runs, hits, RBI, home runs, doubles, triples, total bases, walks drawn, and stolen bases. Nationally, Georgia ranked top-10 in scoring (7.64 runs per game), slugging (.591), on base percentage (.429), and walks (104). Georgia's .335 batting average finished 11th.

The 2019 season saw the end of Alyssa DiCarlo's career. Under Baldwin's mentorship, DiCarlo went down as one of the best hitters in Georgia softball history. DiCarlo shattered Georgia's career records for home runs, RBI, extra-base hits, and total bases while appearing in the top 10 in numerous other offensive categories. She earned All-America status for the second season in a row in 2019. DiCarlo was drafted as the fourth-overall pick in the NPF Draft to the Chicago Bandits. Freshman first baseman Lacey Fincher earned All-SEC honors for their efforts at the plate.

Following the 2019 season, Baldwin had the honor of working with the USA Softball U-19 team over the summer as an assistant coach. The U-19 WNT brought home the bronze medal at the USA Softball International Cup. USA concluded its summer by walking off Japan to win the 2019 World Baseball Softball Confederation (WBSC) U-19 Women's Softball World Cup. With the win, Team USA became the first team in history to win three consecutive U-19 World Cup Titles and has seven titles overall.

The 2018 season was one of the best offensive seasons for Georgia. The Bulldogs posted the third-best batting average in the country with a .333 clip. It was the second-straight season the Bulldogs won the SEC team batting title. Georgia ranked fourth in the NCAA with a .526 slugging percentage and 10th with a .404 on-base clip. Many Bulldogs shined in 2018 at the plate including leadoff hitter Cortni Emanuel (.431 average) who ranked second in the nation with 91 hits. DiCarlo blasted 21 home runs to rank sixth nationally while driving in a seventh-best 67 runs. Both Emanuel and DiCarlo were top-25 finalists for the USA Softball Player of the Year award and each earned NFCA All-American status. Emanuel was also named the recipient of the New Balance/NFCA Golden Shoe Award, given to the most prolific base stealer in the country. Emanuel was the 23rd pick of the NPF Draft by the USSSA Pride, becoming the 13th Bulldog selected in the draft. The Bulldogs concluded the 2018 campaign by making their fourth program appearance at the Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

The 2017 season saw the Bulldogs win the SEC team batting title with a .338 batting average, 22 points higher than second-place Tennessee. That figure ranked fifth-best in the country. Sisters Sydni and Cortni Emanuel concluded the season as top-four hitters in the conference, finishing with .436 and .426 batting averages respectively. The sisters' 2017 batting average rank fourth and fifth in Georgia's single-season top-10 list. Sydni became the latest ProDawg when she was drafted by the Akron Racers as the 16th-overall pick of the National Pro Fastpitch Draft. Cortni was named an NFCA All-American for the second-straight season in 2017.

In 2016, Georgia had its second-best batting average in school history, hitting .342 with eight Bulldogs holding a .300 or better average on its way to the program's third Women's College World Series appearance. After a tough offseason of individual work with Baldwin, many individuals put up stellar numbers. Tina Iosefa led the nation while breaking the SEC record with 87 RBI during the season, earning her NFCA All-America honors. DiCarlo was named to the All-SEC First Team as a freshman after hitting nine of her 11 home runs against SEC opponents and notching 63 RBI on the year, the most of any freshman in the NCAA.

In his first season back, the Bulldog offense exploded, ranking 13th in the nation with a .343 batting average. Georgia finished 11th nationally with 7.21 runs per game and 18th with a .420 on-base percentage. Baldwin guided two NFCA All-Americans in Alex Hugo and Cortni Emanuel, as Hugo was first in the SEC and 12th in the NCAA with 22 home runs while Emanuel was eighth nationally in stolen bases and top-100 in batting average. Nine staples to the Bulldog lineup posted batting averages of .330 or higher at the end of the 2015 season. Once the season concluded, six Bulldog batters were named NFCA All-Region while four made it to an All-SEC Team.

Before returning to Athens, Baldwin was an assistant coach at North Carolina. Baldwin's primary responsibilities included developing the team's hitters and infielders. In 2014, Baldwin coached four .300 hitters and had three players hit double-digit home runs. Under Baldwin's guidance, three Tar Heels were named to the All-ACC Team, including one first-team selection and two second-team selections. In his first season, he helped nine Tar Heels finish the season batting over .300 while six had slugging percentages over .500.

Prior to his first stint at Georgia as volunteer coach, Baldwin spent 14 years coaching Division I baseball. Baldwin was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan State from 2006-08. Baldwin's first recruiting class at Michigan State matriculated a Freshman All-American and multiple draft picks. His second recruiting class was ranked the top recruiting class in the Big Ten and was ranked top 50 in the country by Baseball America. His third recruiting class also produced a Freshman All-American and became the class with the most wins in school history.

Before Michigan State, Baldwin was the assistant head baseball coach at Dartmouth College from 2003-05 after serving as the assistant coach from 1999-2003. At Dartmouth College, he was the recruiting coordinator, travel manager, eligibility coordinator, and worked with fundraising and alumni relations. Baldwin was the hitting and fielding coach, coordinated team defense, and was the third base coach, helping the team to Dartmouth's first Red Rolfe Division Titles in 2000, 2001, and 2004.

Baldwin was the assistant coach at Butler University from 1994-99, and was the head coach of the Decatur Blues, of the Central Illinois Collegiate League, in 1999. At Butler, Baldwin was the hitting coach, coached the infielders and catchers, and coordinated team defense. He helped lead the team to three MCC titles (1996, 1998, and 1999), which were the first in the history of the program.

A native of Bloomington, Indiana, Baldwin graduated from Butler in 1995 with a degree in finance. He was a four-year starter at catcher for Butler. In 1994, he served as a team captain for the Bulldogs and earned All-MCC honors.

In addition to coaching, Baldwin served as the operations director at Camp Weequahic from 2009-12.

Baldwin and his wife Suzanne have four children: Ella, Abby, Brady, and Katie.

RACHELE FICO

ASSISTANT COACH

YEAR AT UGA Sixth

ALMA MATER LSU, 2013

DUTIES Pitching

With a career that boasts accolades of two-time National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-American honors and the top draft pick in the National Pro Fastpitch Draft, former LSU standout Rachele Fico joined the Georgia softball staff as an assistant coach prior to the 2016 season.

Fico guided the Georgia pitching staff to success in the shortened 2020 season. The Bulldogs' 1.92 team ERA checked in at fourth in the SEC while its .179 opponent batting average was third. The Bulldogs struck out a league-best 252 hitters. Mary Wilson Avant's 120 strikeouts was tops in the SEC while Lauren Mathis' 82 was third. Avant's 11 wins were also tied for the SEC lead in 2020. Georgia posted nine shutouts, finishing eighth-best in the country.

The 2019 season saw great success in the circle for the Bulldogs' pitching staff. In all, Georgia recorded 18 total shutouts, the second-most in the SEC and 13th-best in NCAA softball. From Feb. 16-23, the Bulldogs tossed five-consecutive shutouts. Georgia concluded the season with a 2.54 team ERA. The trio of Kylie Bass, Alley Cutting, and Avant shared the pitching duties in 2019 with less than six innings pitched separating the three.

Following the 2019 season in Athens, Fico pitched her final season in the NPF for the Chicago Bandits. In her last campaign, she recorded a 13-4 record in 17 appearances with a 1.62 ERA in 69 innings. She fanned 62 total hitters. On July 20 at home in Rosemont, Illinois, Fico recorded her first professional perfect game in a 5-0 win over the Aussie Peppers.

In 2018, Fico guided senior All-American Brittany Gray to being the NCAA ERA leader. Gray's season was cut short due to injury; however, her 0.48 ERA through 20 appearances and 102 innings stood as the best in college softball. Avant and Bass combined for a 27-8 record in the circle. As a staff, Georgia posted a 1.86 team ERA, finishing 13th nationally and fourth in the Southeastern Conference. The Bulldogs posted 22 shutouts in 2018, including two shutouts each of No. 7 Tennessee and Arkansas and also recorded six-straight shutouts, tying the program record, early in the 2018 campaign.

Gray was selected as the 14th pick of the 2018 NPF draft by the Beijing Shougang Eagles. She became the 12th Bulldog ever to be drafted in the NPF and was the highest pick out of Georgia since Chelsea Wilkenson (14th, 2016).

Following the 2018 season in Athens, Fico played her first season for the Chicago Bandits, her sixth season in the National Pro Fastpitch league. Fico shined in her first season with the Bandits, compiling a team-best seven wins over 41.2 innings of work in the circle. The right-hander ranked fourth among all NPF pitchers with a sparkling 0.51 ERA.

Under Fico's tutelage, Gray ranked among one of the top pitchers in the SEC during the 2017 campaign. The junior held opponents to a .190 batting average in 168 innings of work in the circle. She recorded her second-straight season of 100+ strikeouts, finishing with 134.

In her first year with the Bulldogs, Fico helped the pitching staff to a 2.27 ERA, as the team collected 46 wins. Leading the way was NFCA All-Region selection Chelsea Wilkenson, who led the SEC with 28 victories, including a shutout win in game one of the Gainesville Super Regional to guide the Bulldogs to the program's third Women's College World Series appearance. Along with Wilkenson's 219 strikeouts, Brittany Gray notched 100+ strikeouts on the season while Kylie Bass sported a 1.25 ERA, one of the best in the nation.

Fico served as an assistant coach at top-25 program South Alabama during the 2015 season where the Jaguars took the Sun Belt Conference crown and advanced to its fourth-straight NCAA Regional. Under Fico's guidance, the USA pitching staff held a 2.51 ERA that was top 30 in the NCAA while the trio of pitchers was each in the top 150 individually.

Outside of ERA, Fico helped freshman Devin Brown rank fourth nationally in strikeouts per seven innings (10.9) and senior Farish Beard finish seventh in the NCAA in hits allowed per seven innings (4.04). Beard and freshman Kalen McGill earned All-SBC honors.

The Oxford, Connecticut, native was the No. 1 overall draft pick out of college, playing five seasons with the NPF's Akron Racers. An All-NPF Team selection in 2014, Fico has pitched over 310 innings on her way to 28 wins during her professional career.

While at LSU, Fico was a two-time NFCA First Team All-American, three-time NFCA All-South Region First Team member, and three-time All-Southeastern Conference honoree. Fico still holds the record for most strikeouts in a game, tallying 22 against Mississippi State on March 8, 2013.

During her freshman season with the Tigers in 2010, Fico was named SEC Co-Freshman of the Year in addition to making the All-SEC Freshman and Defensive Team lists. A year later, she led her club to the 2011 NCAA College Station Regional where the Tigers ultimately fell to Syracuse, but not before the right-handed hurler earned a spot on the All-Regional Team behind an 18-strikeout performance against the Orange, a feat which tied for second-most in LSU history.

Fico also brings Women's College World Series experience after leading the Tigers to Oklahoma City as a junior in 2012 when she earned both wins over No. 9 national seed Missouri at the NCAA Columbia Super Regional. Prior to that, she was unanimously named the NCAA College Station Regional MVP after compiling back-to-back shutouts versus Texas State and No. 8 national seed Texas A&M.

Fico completed her collegiate career among LSU's top-five in appearances (149), starts (104), complete games (82), innings pitched (774.0), wins (78), saves (8), opposing batting average (.195), shutouts (32), strikeouts (797) and strikeouts per seven innings (7.21).

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA PRESIDENT

JERE W. MOREHEAD

Jere W. Morehead became the University of Georgia's 22nd President on July 1, 2013, having previously served as UGA's Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost since 2010.

President Morehead's career covers a wide range of faculty and administrative roles. Prior to 2010, he served UGA in several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs. From 2003 to 2010, he served as the University's Faculty Athletics Representative. As UGA President, he also serves as Chair of the Georgia Athletic Association Board of Directors, Chair of the UGA Research Foundation, a UGA Foundation Trustee, and a UGA Real Estate Foundation Trustee.

A member of the Council on Competitiveness, Morehead is also the Committee of Research Intensive Public Universities convened by the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities. He also serves as a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Presidential Forum, the Southeastern Conference (SEC) Executive Committee, and the SEC Working Group on Student-Athlete Conduct. He formerly chaired the SEC Working Group on Compliance, Enforcement, and Governance.

President Morehead is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal and previously held several other editorial board positions with the ABLJ.

He directed the UGA Law School's Advocacy Program from 1986 to 1995 at a time when the moot court teams he coached won international, national, regional and state championships. In 1995, he served as a visiting professor of business law at the University of Michigan.

President Morehead has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence—the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also received the Distinguished Service Scroll Award, the Law School Alumni Association's highest honor, and has been included in Georgia Trend's list of Most Influential Georgians for six consecutive years.

Morehead is a native of Lakeland, Florida. He moved with his family to Atlanta as a teenager and enrolled at Georgia State University after graduating from high school at the age of 16. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1977. He entered the University of Georgia School of Law in 1977, where he graduated with a juris doctor degree at the age of 23 in 1980. After graduation, he served as an Assistant United States Attorney with the Department of Justice from 1980 to 1986. He is the first alumnus of UGA to serve as President since 1986.

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

JOSH BROOKS

Josh Brooks was named J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Jan. 6, 2021, after serving 11 years at UGA, most recently as Interim Director of Athletics and Senior Deputy Director of Athletics.

Brooks returned to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics after serving as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15.

Prior to his tenures at Millsaps and ULM, he served in capacities at UGA as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14).

On January 20, 2021, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship that will support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift will create a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

During his time at UGA, Brooks worked closely with former Director of Athletics Greg McGarity overseeing internal and external for all athletic operations. He has served as the liaison with the Office of University Architects office on all athletic construction projects and with several campus departments as well as the president's office. His responsibilities at UGA have included overseeing the departments of facility support, graphics and design, and turf management.

He has been involved in the scheduling of future football games, as well as overseeing bowl game operations. In addition, his responsibilities included assisting with the development and management of facilities, new construction projects for the Athletic Association, and planning the 2013 Jason Aldean Concert in Sanford Stadium. Brooks has also served as the sport facilitator for football and men's and women's track and field and cross country.

During his time at Millsaps, Brooks revamped the Major game-day experience. He created the kid's zone, specialized concessions, and partnerships with youth sports leagues. Partnerships with the Jackson Public Schools, the Jackson Zoo, the National Guard and the Boy and Girl Scouts of America added to game days. This enhanced experience helped Brooks solicit over $100K in sponsorship opportunities.

Brooks also established a department-wide fundraising campaign that led to a 150 percent increase in Major-Club donations. Capping off this fundraising campaign was the creation of a standalone Hall of Fame event at the Capital Club and the Mary Ann Edge Golf Tournament held at Patrick Farms golf course.

The Majors saw great athletic success in Brooks' first year. The Majors enjoyed two SAA regular season championships, captured by the men's soccer team and the women's basketball team. The Millsaps' baseball team also earned a trip to the West Regional tournament. The student-athletes also shined in the classroom in Brooks' first year. Millsaps' student-athletes had an overall grade-point-average of 3.0 in the 2014-15 academic year. Over 130 Majors' earned Academic All-Conference honors.

While serving as director of football operations at the University of Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2004, and in 2007 ULM became bowl eligible for the first time in school history after beating Alabama. Brooks gained experience as a student at Louisiana State University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach. During his four years at LSU, the Tigers participated in the 2000 Peach Bowl, 2002 Sugar Bowl, and won the 2001 Southeastern Conference championship.

A native of Hammond, Louisiana, he graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his Master's degree in Sport Management from The University of Georgia ('14). He and his wife Lillie have twin sons Jackson and James born July 2009 and a third son Davis born March 2012.

THE CIRCLE OF HONOR

NICOLE BARBER is Georgia softball's first and only Circle of Honor inductee, the highest honor bestowed upon a student-athlete at Georgia. Barber was the Bulldogs' centerfielder from 2001-04. She still holds the NCAA record with 257 career stolen bases including swiping 73 consecutive bags, also an NCAA record. Her 379 career hits is an SEC record while ranking in the top 10 in batting average, triples, runs, and fielding percentage as a centerfielder. She was three-time All-American and four-time All-SEC honoree for Georgia. Barber played in 278 games of her career, going 204-74 as a Bulldog with 70 SEC wins.

THE CIRCLE OF HONOR is the UGA Athletic Association's all-sports recognition program which is designed to recognize and pay tribute to extraordinary student-athletes and coaches who, by their performance and conduct, have brought honor to the University and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria also stipulates that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

KASI CARROLL

Kasi Carroll is Georgia softball's lone multi-time CoSIDA First Team Academic All-America award winner. Carroll also earned Academic All-District three times and is softball's lone Joel Eaves Award winner, given the male and female student-athletes with the highest GPA upon entering the fall semester of his or her senior year, based on academic hour rather than eligibility. Additionally, a student-athlete must have earned at least two varsity letters to be eligible for the award. She was also a 2006 All-SEC performer in the circle.
